Ansar Connect:

The virtual learning programme on G-Suite, whatsapp and zoom platforms connected our students and teachers stranded at home without hassles and boredom.

AISSE/AISSCE Results:

Our students registered for AISSE were fortunate enough to attend all the papers amidst Covid whereas AISSCE students could not. Still the academic achievements of our students were astounding. 67 students scored above 90% (X:29 /292 & XII:38/215). Afsheen Aziz (98.2%) and Nihal C Hamsu (97.6 %) are the school toppers in AISSE and Samah Mubarak who scored 100/100 in General Science draws special appreciation. Hasna T with 97 % is the Science topper in AISSCE and Ameena Resh and Anushibila both with 96.2% stood atop in the AISSCE in Commerce stream.

A total of 266 students have been registered for AISSE (Grade X) and 233 students for AISSCE (Grade XII) in this academic year.

Training Programs:

Our staff attended a lot of online training programs at the state and national level organized by different bodies such as CBSE, IECI, Techno school, Mathematics Council etc. We also arranged training sessions for teachers to enhance the technological skills, the emotional health, psychological wellbeing and subject competency. Dr. Mahmood Shihab (Principal ATCW), Mr. Harish Babu (HR Trainer) and Dr.Dinesh Babu.M (General Secretary, SSCT) were a few among the trainers.

We have devised a Comprehensive Assessment Tool for teachers which would ensure the quality enhancement initiatives to a great extend.

PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT:

A series of parent meetings and open days were conducted in both online and offline mode. A parent teacher council led by Mr. Mohammed Ameen held PTC meetings periodically to evaluate the progress of the school community. PTC President is a member of the School Discipline Committee and SPC Advisory Board. The School Management announced 40-50% of fee concession and 100% waving of fees for those who lost their job in this period which turned to be a big relief for our parents.

ACADEMIC ACTIVITIES & ACHIEVEMENTS:

A series of tests are conducted for students of all classes using google forms and similar methods to assess them periodically and ensure their academic progress. Apart from these, our students are also tested through various talent search exams organized by external bodies such as IECI, GanithaSasthra Parishad, Students Police Cadet and Malarvadi. Special coaching was given for the students of class X for National Talent Search Examination, NTSE by external as well as internal faculties. As we started offline classes for classes X and XII from the month of January model examinations and revision classes are conducted in the school to keep our students on track towards the board examinations. Sheza Fathima of class 5 bagged 3rd prize in the little orator competition initiated by IECT public school.

Ansar Hifz initiative resumed its classes in the virtual classrooms too, around 200 students were enrolled in this initiative. With the support of Ansar Alumni we could organize a motivational session for the Hifz students. Ansar Fajr Campaign initiated by the Moral Science Department evoked wonderful impact in our students and parents. A series of competitions were conducted in connection with Miladunnabi titled Rabeeh Campaign to spread the message of the last prophet.

CO-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES:

Observance of important days throughout the year helped to increase the knowledge of the students, boost their confidence, provide chance to perform and improve different skills. We observed 28 days of National or International relevance in this academic year across all the sections from KG to Senior secondary with a variety of programs such as live sessions, talk shows, awareness sessions, cultural programs, and a variety of competitions.

National festivals of India were celebrated in the school campus with a patriotic fervor. On August 15 and January 26, we hoisted Indian flag following the covid-19 protocol. Onam, the harvest festival of Kerala and Kerala Piravi day were celebrated in the best creative way including cultural programs, cookery shows, Pookalam competitions, games, video presentations and photography contests to help our students know the Kerala culture in a better way.

SPC, Student Police Cadet at Ansar continues its journey through a plethora of activities to the mission of empowering school students. We could produce a telefilm in connection with the CHIRI project of SPC. Our cadets were actively involved in celebrations of national importance and conducted a dress collection campaign for orphanages as a part of Childrens' Day.

SCHOOL MAGAZINES:

It provides opportunities for self-expression and cultivates literary skills in students. We published 76 e- magazines from classes KG-12. These magazines were released in section-wise special programs by eminent personalities from the field of literature. Students' original works from all these magazines have found their places in the Annual School Magazine which is going to be released soon as a Digital magazine. One of our UP section student, Asim is getting ready to publish his second book in the month of February.

CHARITY:

Our school has always been trying to support financially challenged sector of the society and has spent an amount of Rs- 30,20,000 /- as charity to support the students by way of fee concession, free uniforms, books. Altogether 485 students are benefitted from various concessions.

Commemoration

To Him we belong and unto Him we shall return. This year we bore witness to the inevitable departure of Janab T B Kunjumon, who was an active member of Ansari Charitable Trust. We do pray very sincerely for his eternal success.

CONCLUSION:

The Covid-19 lockdown never turned us disappointed as the Management and the staff stood firm in supporting the parents and students in many ways. The innovative strategies were coined carefully to ensure optimum satisfaction for our stakeholders. Our teachers deserve wide applause for their relentless service in adopting new techniques for their effective transaction. The education is going to be on a blended form in the new normal era. We do hope that we would pioneer all endeavours in this field to continue quality service.

May the Almighty God bless us to stay healthy in every respect.(Ameen).
