Observing National Mathematics Day Across Sections

Ansar English School observed National Mathematics Day with a variety of engaging activities across the Primary, Middle, and Secondary sections, honoring the legacy of Srinivasa Ramanujan. The Primary Section featured corridor decorations, a Rubik's Cube competition for Classes 3-5, and a Scrapbook Making Competition, culminating in the release of scrapbooks and magazines during January's Talent Day. The Middle Section organized "Mathematics Marvels" on December 19, 2024, led by Ms. Lincy M and the Mathematics Department, where Grades 6 and 7 exhibited innovative models, puzzles, and creative projects in the Mathematics Lab. The Secondary Section, celebrating on December 21, 2024, held competitions such as Sudoku solving, Rubik's Cube solving, and Geometrical Pattern creation. These events fostered a deeper appreciation for mathematics, encouraged critical thinking, and provided students with hands-on opportunities to explore the subject's practical applications.

PINK AND YELLOW DAY CELEBRATION AT SPROUTS

Sprouts, the KG section of Ansar English School, celebrated Pink and Yellow Day with vibrant enthusiasm, graced by the presence of Vice Principal Mrs. Shyny Hamza, who appreciated the efforts of teachers and students. The event began with a delightful dance performance by the little ones, dressed in cheerful pink and yellow attire, spreading joy and excitement. This was followed by a creative Show and Tell session, where students confidently presented and described objects in pink and yellow shades, including flowers, fruits, and everyday items, making the day both engaging and enriching for everyone.

ARABIC DAY: A CELEBRATION OF RICH HERITAGE AND CULTURAL DIVERSITY

On December 18th, 2024, Ansar English School celebrated Arabic Language Day across its various sections. The Primary Section held an Arabic Talent Day, with students showcasing Arabic calligraphy, traditional art, and proverbs, alongside an Arabic Exhibition. In the Middle Section, the event "Arabesque" featured cultural performances, an interactive workshop on Arabic phrases and calligraphy, and a display of Arabic cuisine. The Secondary and Senior Secondary Sections focused on performances and speeches highlighting the cultural and historical significance of the Arabic language. The celebration successfully fostered a deeper appreciation for Arabic language and culture among students and staff.

World Arabic Language Day was observed in our campus to make the students aware that Arabic language is a living bridge between past and present, uniting people through its diverse dialects and shared heritage. It facilitated the world to celebrate the eloquence and diversity of a language that has shaped art, science, and philosophy for centuries. Designated by UNESCO World Arabic Language Day honors the profound contributions of Arabic to culture, science, and global heritage.
